

As it stands even being on the list hasn't stopped some of the calls. Why give these people even more latitude. They already abuse the system that we fight so hard to keep. I for one would love to have one day of the week that I don't get "unknown caller" on my caller ID and an automated "hello" on my answering machine!